Emails

The Archdiocese of Perth provides both the service, security and support for email services of both clergy and parishes, making some of our historic email addresses more redundant. Rather than paying for an additional email service provider, we will be transitioning to the ones already provided and supported by the Archdiocese for many years:

NEWS, HAPPENINGS & CELEBRATIONS

School First Holy Communion Commitment Masses

Next weekend at both the Vigil, and both morning Masses, there will be several children and their parents joining us in preparation for their first Holy Communion August 10. For some, it may have been a little while since they've been to Church, they might be nervous and may not know anyone there. In the Gospel of the Prodigal son, let us consider the contrasting attitudes of the Father and brother when the prodigal son returns. May our returning brothers and sisters in Christ find in us the embracing, generous and welcoming spirit of the Father. I humbly ask you to join me in interceding for both the children and their parents, and to be generous in extending a warm, personal welcome to any visitors next weekend especially.

Parish Sacramental Preparation Classes

For our children who are in other schools, from Year 3 and up, please consider enrolling them in Parish Sacramental Preparation Classes as we prepare them for their Sacraments. Classes will begin mid-term on Wednesday August 21st 4:15pm until 5pm at the Church. The program will finish mid-term 4. Please contact Fr Stephen if you have any questions.

Do you know someone sick or in need of a visit?

Not everyone can make our community Masses, but I'm happy to go to them! Please contact me and I will be delighted to visit them. Whether it's for Holy Communion, or someone you think might appreciate just a visit, please give this some thought. I'm also happy to especially pray for sick members of our parish community. Whether prayers are asked for privately, or you are happy to extend the invitation to others to join in praying for them, please do reach out.

Recent Maintenance

Thank you to Paul Rutherford, Pam Wilkinson, Janina Wren and all who have assisted in some recent maintenance works. Together, we've got our bathroom back in order, outdoor lights fixed and blocked gutter and downpipe fixed. Thank you for those of you that support our parish both practically and also financially so we can get our repair supplies when needed!
